

A RESOLUTION OF THE COMMON COUNCIL OF FORT WAYNE, INDIANA, SUPPORTING THE UNITED WAY'S "DAY OF CARING," AUGUST 31, 1994, WHICH WILL ALLOW
CITY EMPLOYEES TO SPEND ONE DAY AWAY FROM THEIR NORMAL JOBS WITH PAY
WORKING IN THE COMMUNITY ON PROJECTS
BENEFITTING SOCIAL SERVICE AGENCIES AND LOW-AND MODERATE-INCOME FAMILIES.

WHEREAS, the City of Fort Wayne continues to have unmet needs in the areas of social and human services; and

WHEREAS, those needs are often better addressed by committed volunteers rather than by government agencies; and

WHEREAS, the United Way's second annual "Day of Caring" is one means to address these needs while incurring little or no costs other than allowing employees across the city a day away from their normal work sites with pay; and

WHEREAS, City employees serve the public on a daily basis but are still somehow seen as "separate" by those citizens they serve; and

WHEREAS, City employees and others who participate in the "Day of Caring" will benefit from seeing human faces on the "needs" of this community, and the City will benefit from the hours these individuals work on community projects.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED BY THE COMMON COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF FORT WAYNE, INDIANA:

SECTION 1. That the Fort Wayne Common Council supports the United Way's "Day of Caring" August 31, 1994.

SECTION 2. The Common Council of the City of Fort Wayne supports City employees in their participation in the "Day of Caring" with pay, with the approval of each employee's Department and Division head.

SECTION 3. That this Resolution shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage and any and all necessary approval by the Mayor.

TO: Members of City Council

FROM: Rebecca Fisher, Public Information Director

DATE: July 12, 1994

SUBJECT: Support for the United Way's "Day of Caring", including participation by City employees.

Background

2-94-07.05

The United Way's second annual "Day of Caring" hopes to have 2,000 volunteers throughout the community come out from behind their desks and other work areas on Wednesday, August 31, 1994 and form a "volunteer army" to work on projects helping local social service agencies and low-and moderate-income families in the Fort Wayne community.

Support for the Resolution

The resolution states that the Fort Wayne Common Council formally supports participation by City employees in the "Day of Caring". Passage of the resolution will allow City employees, with their department and division heads' permission, to spend their workday on August 31 at a "Day of Caring" site.

Recommendation

We recommend that the members of City Council approve the attached resolution to demonstrate their support of the "Day of Caring".

DIGEST SHEET

TITLE OF RESOLUTION: Support for the "Day of Caring"

DEPARTMENT REQUESTING RESOLUTION: Mayor's Office

SYNOPSIS OF RESOLUTION: Shows City's support for the "Day of Caring", which will allow City employees to join with employees of other corporations to make a positive difference in the community they serve everyday.

EFFECT OF PASSAGE: City employees will be allowed to request to spend August 31, 1994 at a "Day of Caring" site and still receive pay from the City for that day. Employees must receive department and division head approval prior to the "Day of Caring" and must verify their participation afterward.

EFFECT OF NON-PASSAGE: City employees will not be allowed to participate in the "Day of Caring" and still receive pay from the City for that day.

MONEY INVOLVED: No additional money from the budget will be involved.
